Keynote Part 1 and 2

Surviving an Active Shooter or Violent Intruder: Run, Hide, Fight This training will educate participants in changing techniques to mitigate loss of lives associated with active shooters and violent intruders. Information will help you understand what an active shooter is, change your mental process away from Shelter In Place only and give you options and ideas to use in an active shooter or violent intruder situation. Officer Eric Schroeder

Breakout Sessions

Mandated Reporter Training Part 1 and 2 (Breakout 1 and 2)

Must attend Part 1 and 2 to receive credit: Participants will learn about mandated reporters and reporting requirements, signs and symptoms of maltreatment, how to make a hotline call and what happens after a hotline call is received. This training is for all mandated reporters and anyone who is responsible for the care, custody, or control of a child.

Micki Lane, Child Advocacy Center

Jennifer Loibl, MO Department of Social Services

Nathan Chapman, Greene County Prosecuting Attorney Office

Hands on: Learning through Sensory Play (Breakout 1 or Breakout 2):

Go beyond the basics and discover new ideas for using sensory play that appeals to all the senses. Explore approaches to incorporating sensory play in educational subject areas. We will be making and playing!

Charity Jordan, Springfield-Greene County Library

Switch Toys for Adaptive Play (Breakout 1): A presentation on toys that have been adapted to use switches for modified accessibility. Attendees will learn what switch adapted toys are, why they benefit children, and how to adapt toys independently. Tiffany Moore, Community Partnership of the Ozarks

Learning through Movement: Bringing FUN to Any Lesson

(Breakout 1): Children learn through play and movement. A child's brain is wired to learn best when lessons incorporate watching, listening, and moving. This session will provide a background for understanding how to best capture attention during teachable moments. Participants will receive tips for how to design lessons that are FUN and effective. Participants will also learn how to enhance routine curriculum with movement activities when children are not actively engaging in the lesson as expected.

Dr. Amy Vaughan, Occupational Therapist

A Conscious Discipline Overview (Breakout 2): This session will provide you with a very broad overview and background of some of the key elements of Conscious Discipline and help familiarize you with some of the Conscious Discipline language. Lori Schumer, The One Stop for Early Childhood

Session Topics

Breakout Sessions Continued

Going Beyond the Welcome. Creating an Inclusive Environment in Your Faith-based Setting (Breakout 1): Learn how to promote inclusion of all abilities in church and faith-based environments. Learn to lead by example and learn how to take an active role in teaching others how to be welcoming, inquisitive and supportive so that genuine friendships can develop in classrooms and ministries. Will cover identifying communication, sensory, social and behavior needs and barriers, including how to support the child and work with the family. Elizabeth Obrey, Arc of the Ozarks, Disability Author and STARS for Autism trainer

Child Care Food Program: Program & Meal Pattern Training

(Breakout 2 or 3): This session is only for home providers enrolled in the Council of Churches Child Care Food Program. This session counts as the annual required training. Training will cover CACFP meal pattern guidelines, as well as CCFP program guidelines and expectations. Providers will learn the creditable components and guidelines for infant and child meal patterns, USDA meal pattern guidelines, methods for identifying whole grains, reviews over CCFP paperwork requirements and monitor visits, Civil Rights training, and the seriously deficient process. Each attendee will be given the required materials needed to successfully complete the training. Upon completion of the training, each attendee will receive one hour of certified training, as well as their one hour of training with the CCFP. Ashley Carlew, Child Care Food Program

How to Wear the Many Hats of an Educator without Becoming a Mad Hatter

(Breakout 2 or 3): Being an educator can be very rewarding, yet challenging career. Through humor and research based strategies participants will be inspired, learning new ways to manage stress and reignite their passion for children! Karen Base, Independent Consultant

Trauma Awareness (Breakout 3): This training goes over becoming Trauma Aware. This session will give participants an understanding of what trauma is, impacts on the brain, and how they can identify trauma. It highlights the Adverse Childhood Experiences Study, and how childhood trauma impacts the lifespan.

Diamond Netzer, Community Partnership of the Ozarks

New Picture Book Parade (Breakout 3): Are you tired of using the same picture books year after year? Come explore recently released picture books to use with your students. Discover activities, crafts and other ideas to pair with the books to expand your lessons further.

Amanda Harrell, Springfield-Greene County Library

Trust-Based Relational Intervention (TBRI) Overview (Breakout 3): Trust-Based Relational Intervention (TBRI) is an attachment-based, evidence-based and trauma-informed intervention that is designed to meet the complex needs of vulnerable children. The foundation of TBRI is connection with the child, in order to address the needs of the child and disarm fear-based behaviors. Participants will be given an overview of TBRI and simple strategies to implement to help children feel safe and begin to connect with their caregivers.
